Fashion Week San Diego is gearing up for its tenth annual fall runway shows from October 4-8, offering a variety of art, beauty, and cultural events and parties. Features include a fashion film screening, the "Hot Behind Beauty" look-off event, two nights of runway shows, and a trunk show/ceremony.

As FWSD celebrates the past and looks to the future, the event will feature past winners, emerging designers, and more. "We are celebrating the past decade, but looking forward to everyone coming together and sharing their incredible talent, on the runway and off," says Alison Andrews, founder and director of FWSD.

VIP ($100) and general admission ($50) passes are selling fast. Guests also have the option to purchase the Front Row VIP pass - use promo code #R00NFD08 before September 3 to purchase the pass for just $100. fashionweeksd.com
